1980

SEPTEMBER 20, 1979: MORRIS HILLS GETS

Morris Hills opened up its fall sports season with its annual PEP RALLY. Credit should be given to our fine cheerleading squad for presenting an excellent program once again this year. Everyone walked away "psyched," and ready to win.

"GET PSYCHED!"

Coach O'Leary's enthusiasm for the coming season evoked a smile from his two captains Mark Fitzpatrick and Dave Spivak.

Cross Country captains Cathy Valencia and Linda Mutchko applaud their fellow teammates.

Sally Lawler smiles proudly as the Band receives some well deserved applause.

R-O-W-D-I-E!

Bill Eva and Pete Schuckman add up to 145.

Our fine Marching Band always does a great job of psyching up our athletes.

Field Hockey captain Terry Sagan explains this years strategies to an excited Scarlet Knight audience.

Coach Fyock looks on proudly as the football team is introduced.

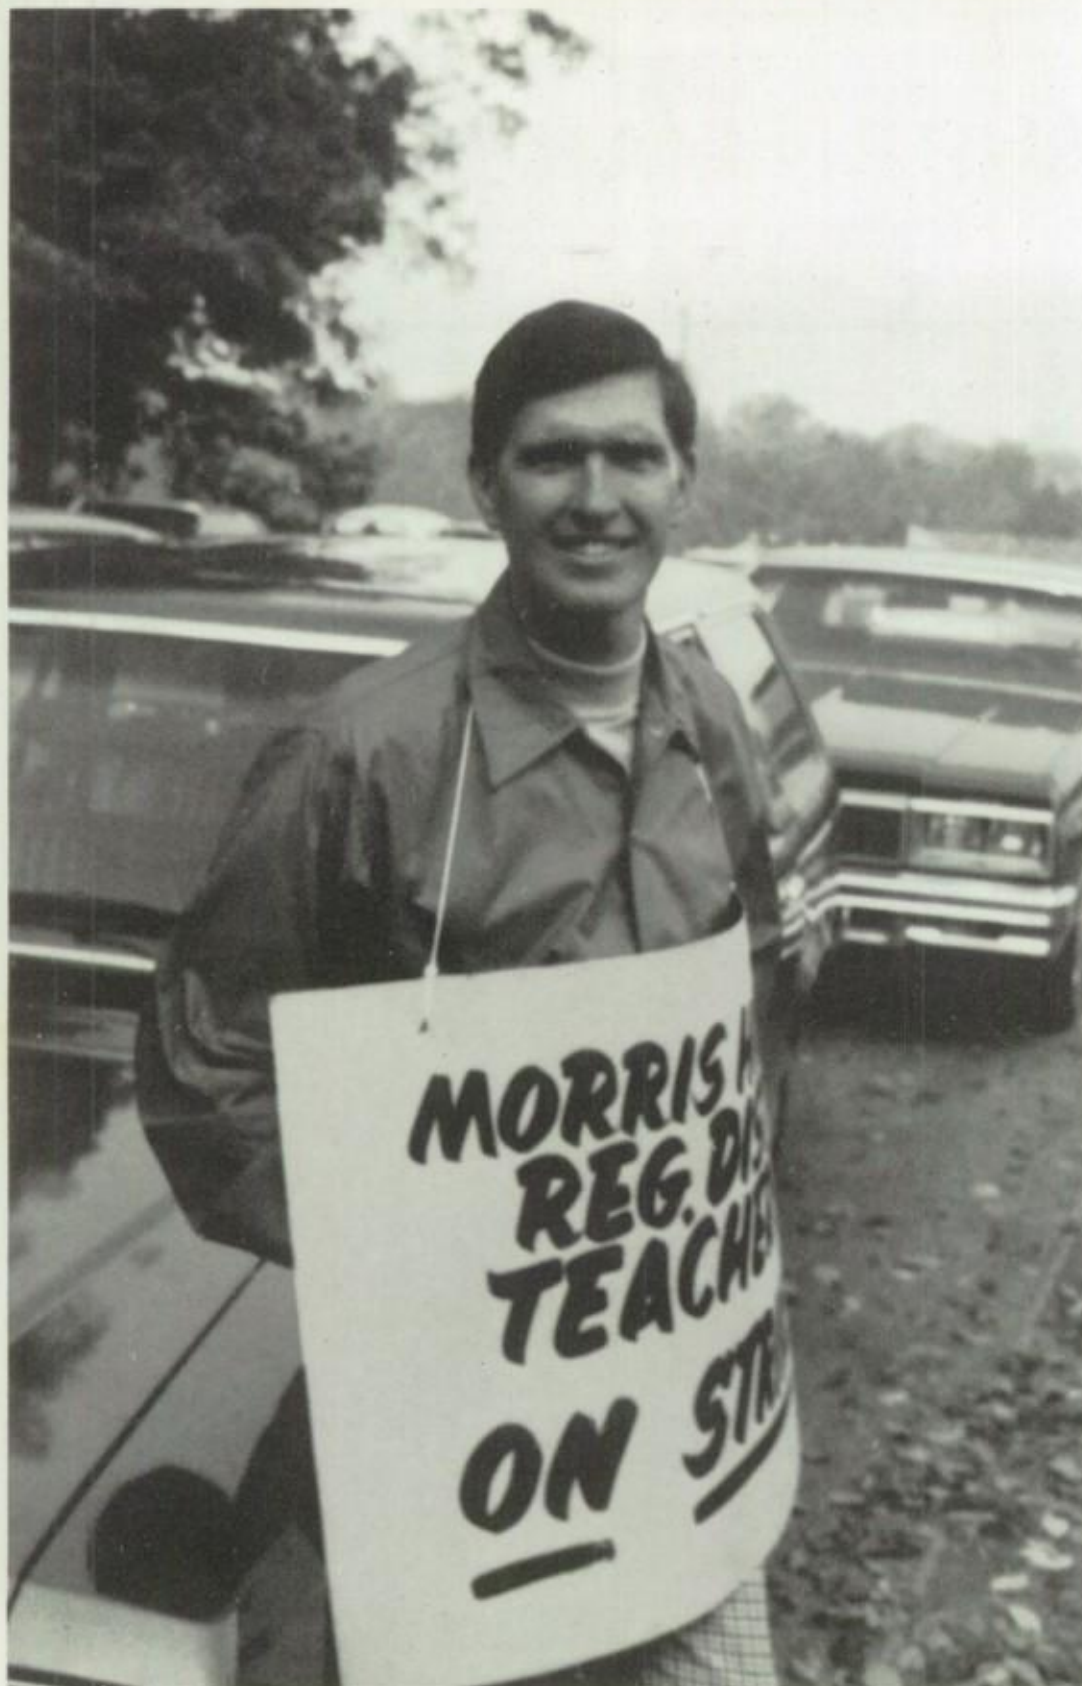

Joan Ferraro experiences "Pre-Pep Rally Jitters."

The gymnastics team participates in its first pep rally.

OCTOBER 4-5, 1979:

MORRIS HILLS TEACHERS MAKE HISTORY

This year the Morris Hills Regional District experienced the first teachers strike in its history. Those students who reported to school on October 4 were assigned to different parts of the building depending on their grade. They spent the day in these areas, and were dismissed early. The second day, October 5, the students were able to choose different classes which were taught by substitutes. Some went to the gym to play volleyball or basketball, while others spent the day being creative in the art room.

It was an interesting experience for all of us. The students were exposed to a different side of their teachers, as we saw the faculty participate in picket lines for the duration of the school day. Luckily, the strike only lasted two days, and everything was back to normal as soon as the teachers and the Board reached an agreement.

OCTOBER 24, 1979:

TEACHERS OUTSPIKE SENIORS

Norm Roth attempts to block a Fuerherm Spike, while the Senior girls look on.

The mighty Senior Class finally got their chance to YELL . . . to SCREAM . . . at none other than . . . their teachers!! However, it wasn't in the classroom, but on the volleyball court. Our faculty rose to the occasion by soundly beating their students with carefully planned bumps, sets, and spikes.

"Twinkletoes Schuckman"

Mr. Jewell and Mr. Fuerherm anticipate a Kurt Nees spike.

SENIOR - FACULTY VOLLEYBALL GAME

Students and Faculty both cheered on their favorite team.

Pat Di Fillipo gets ready for a tough fight.

OCTOBER 31, 1979: "TRICK OR TREAT"

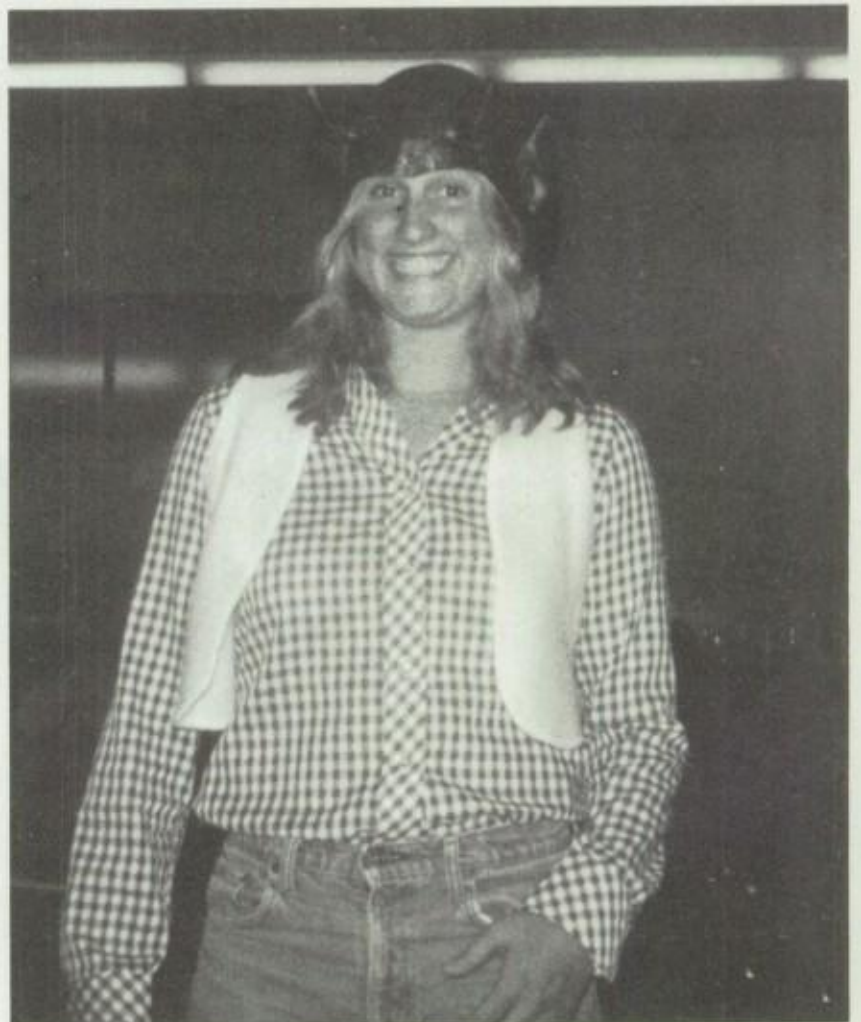

Walking down the hallway, you could see cats, spacemen, rabbits, clowns, nurses, devils, and maybe even got to sit next to them in class. Yes, it was Halloween at Morris Hills, and as usual our students did it with style.

Denise Tollen seems to look forward to Trick or Treating.

"What's up, Doc?"

We always knew that Anne Mackinnon was a little bit of a devil.

NOVEMBER 13-16, 1979: IT ONLY HAPPENS ONCE EVERY DECADE

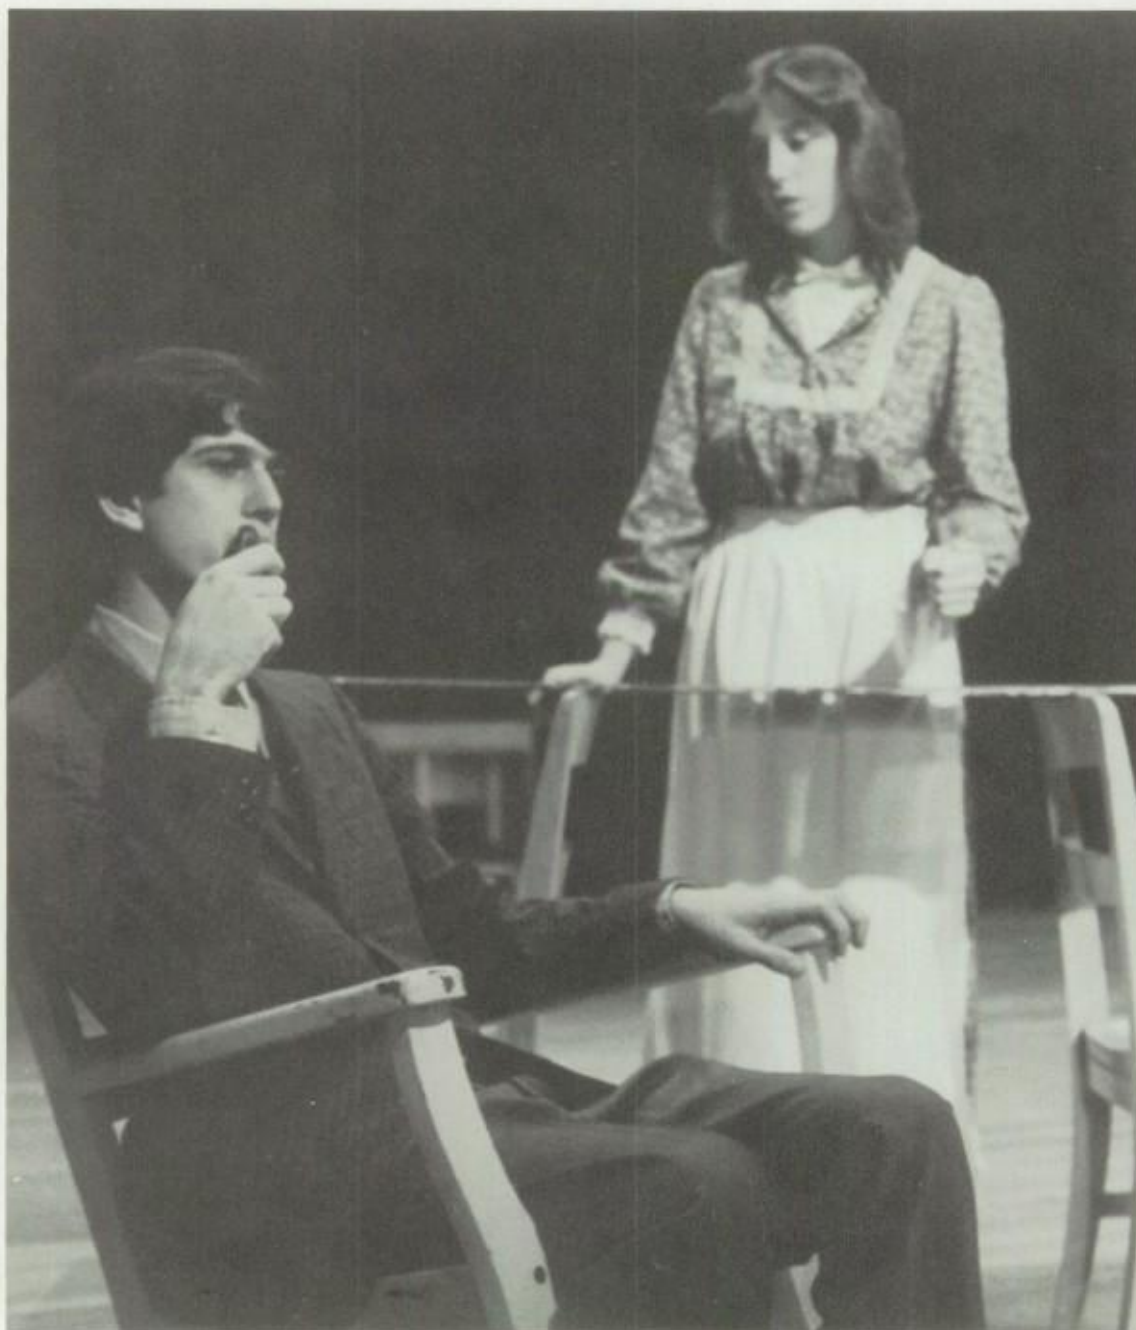

This time, Morris Hills was receiving grades instead of giving them out. Middle State Evaluations happen every ten years, and we were very well prepared for this one. The visitation began with a welcoming dinner on the thirteenth which started three days of questioning, examination, and anticipation. A great sense of pride could be felt throughout every hallway. For this alone, the visitation was a great success.

NOVEMBER 16-17, 1979: MORRIS HILLS

This year's dramatic production at Morris Hills was "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder. The challenging role of the Stage Manager was tackled by Scott Weinstock. Randi Flaum and Seth Geldzahler poignantly portrayed the naive teenagers. Although it was the group's first attempt at a production without scenery, the play was a complete success.

Dear Class of 1980,

During the past four years, we've been through a lot. We've progressed from "Fidgety Freshmen" to "Super Seniors." We have many fond memories which will be treasured for the rest of our lives. We will always cherish the friendships we've made with students and teachers at Morris Hills. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to work with you.

ORSSSENIORSSENIORSSENIORS

SENIORSSSENIORSSSENI

Norman Roth displays his talents off the football field.

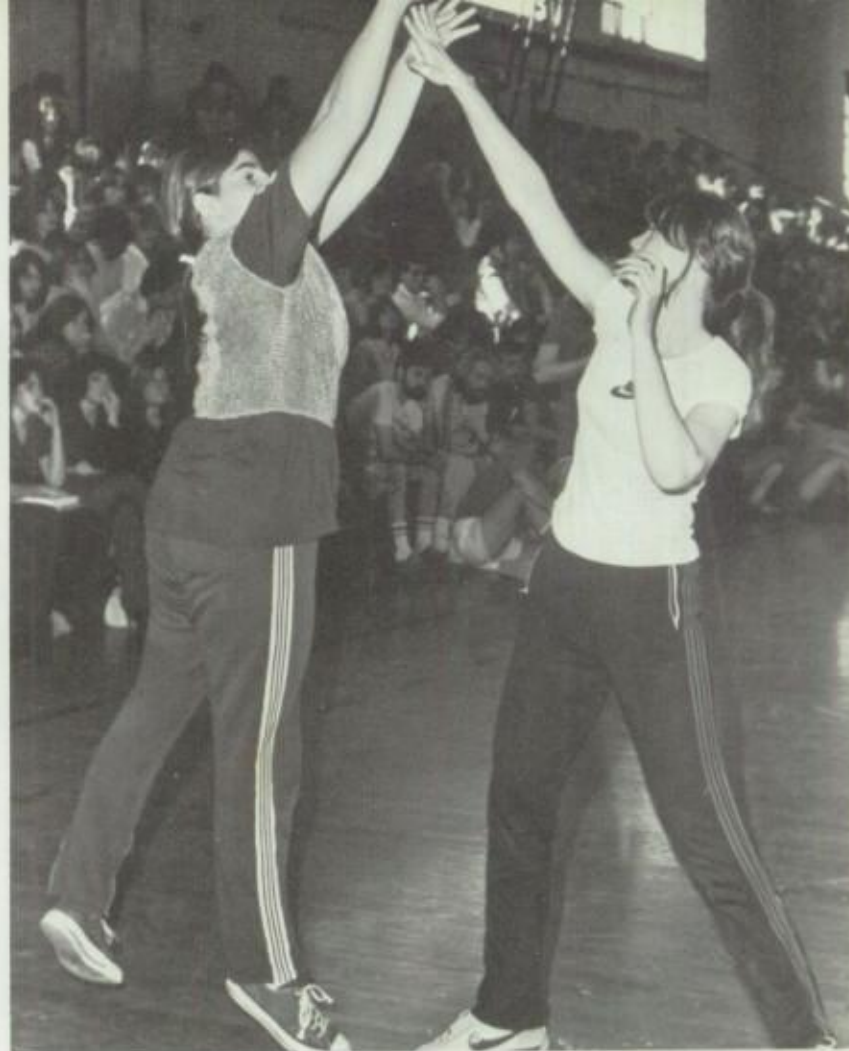

"Gee, Toep, we have to stop meeting like this!"

Vince Opalewski and Mr. Kilcullen race desperately for the rebound.

This year's game, in which the girls were able to play for the first time, was a total success. With a little help from Mr. Connelly, the female faculty had enough players for a team of their own. However, the Seniors, sparked by high-scorer Brenda Ziegler, pulled off a 13-9 victory. On the other hand, Mr. Kilcullen's basketball experience came through for a male faculty win over the Seniors with the score of 46-23.

Mr. Kascher and Kurt Nees fight for the basketball.

"Hey, Ref, that's a foul!"

Steve Dicker defies gravity as he attempts to block a Mr. Wask jump shot.

Referee Ann Fox looks on as high scorer, Brenda Ziegler, drives past Miss Toepert for 2 points.

Donna Bajkowsky passes off to Brenda.

FEBRUARY 21,
1980:

SENIOR-FACULTY BASKETBALL GAME

Marybeth Logan looks for the open man — or, in this case, woman.

Mr. Kilcullen shows that he hasn't lost his magic touch, as he leads the faculty in scoring.

Scott Weinstock finds a weakness in the Faculty defense and takes his shot.

Brenda runs into some difficulty getting around Mr. Connelly.

AFTER

Take a little red and white paint, add a bold design, plus a group of artistic and dedicated Seniors, and what do you get? Our beautifully painted fountain on the front lawn is the final result. George Anderson, Cindy Eisele, Cathy Raynis and Angela Stassi got the project off the ground, and their hard work really paid off.

DURING

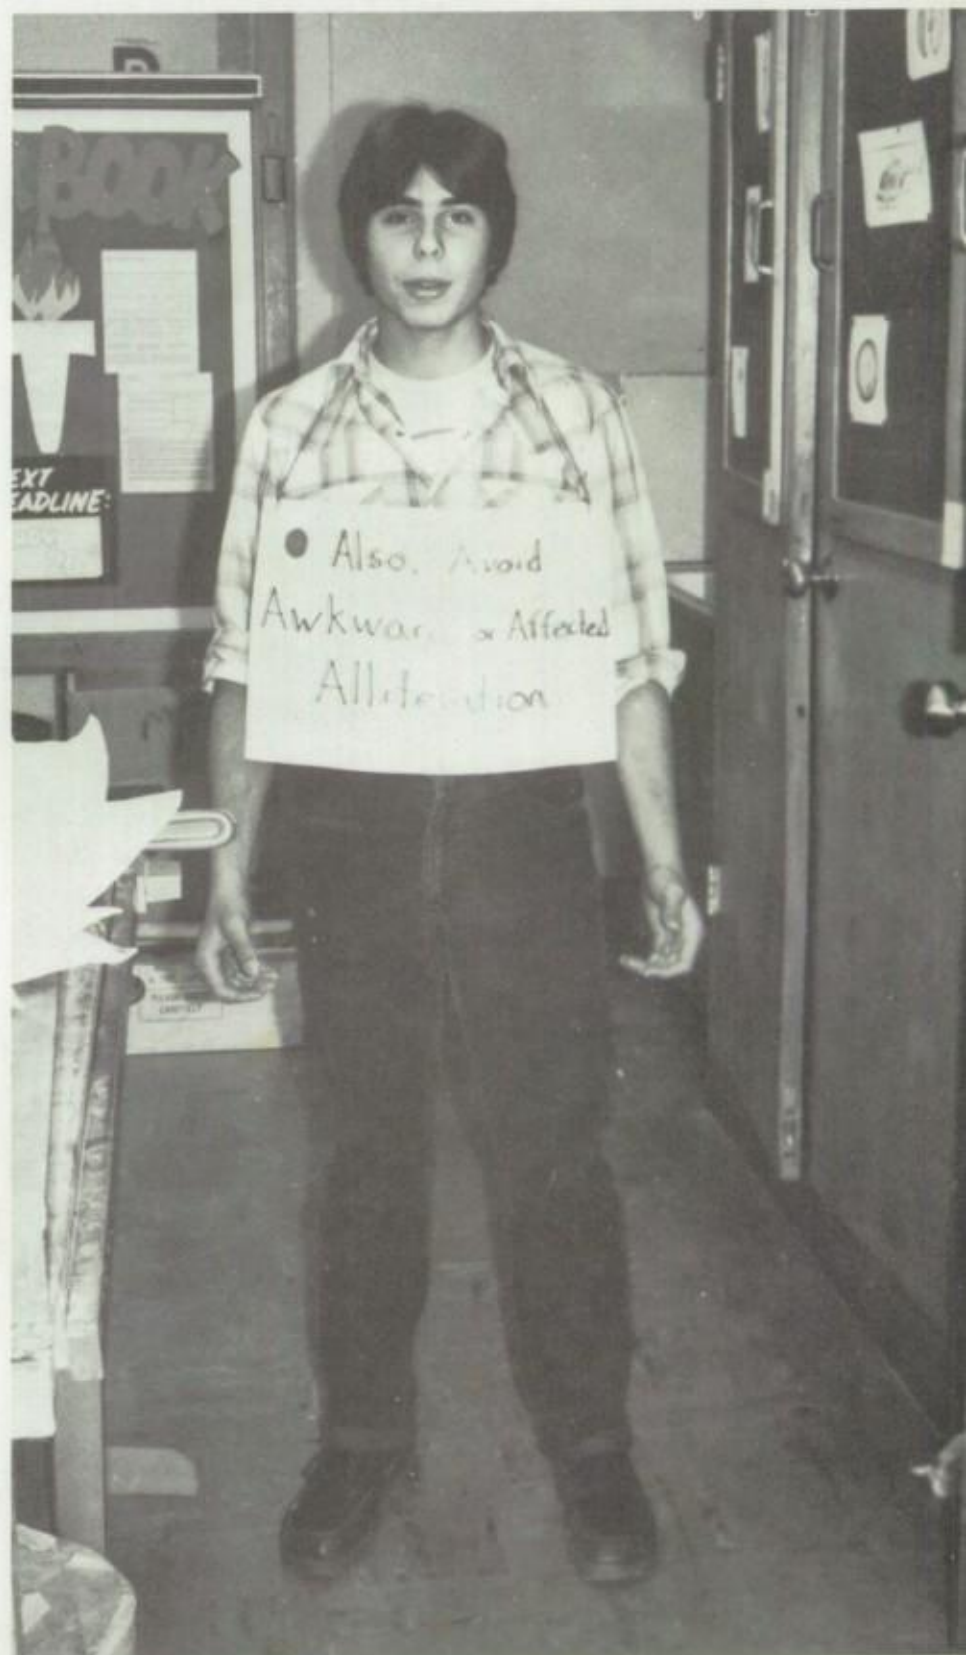

Eileen Crowley leads the picket line through one of the many classrooms that were visited during the day.

Pat Toole and Sue Zett seem ready to negotiate.

In an attempt to promote better usage of the English language, students in Mr. Lasso's classes formed picket lines, and marched through hall ways and classrooms spreading their message. What students will do for two little extra credits!

Pat DiFillipo looks like he could use all the extra credit he can get.

Four New Faces

Welcome to New Staff

Morris Hills is proud to welcome four new teachers for the 1979-80 school year. Miss Katherine Allegro, one of the four, is working in the reading lab. She is offering a course in speed reading and preparation for the S.A.T. and P.S.A.T. tests. Students can come for these courses one day a week from their English class or from study hall. Miss Allegro graduated from Rutgers University, and this is her first teaching assignment.

Miss Marcia Farber is the next of the four. She teaches German 1, 2, and 3. She is a graduate of Kutztown State in Pennsylvania and taught at Morris Hills 10 years ago. She left to teach in Germany, where she taught English. The final newcomer is Mrs. Patricia Lynch. She attended Seton Hall University. She teaches Health and physical education and is also the coach of the gymnastics and swim team. Her only other teaching experience was student teaching at Morris Hills High School.

Mr. Patrick Searles is in the arts department. He has a background in theory, maintenance, power mechanics. He attended the University of Painting walls at Morris Hills seems to be the rage this year. Not only did Andy Ogilvie paint Mr. Searles' walls, but Mr. Panei had the same thing done to his. Last spring as his M.H. science teacher gazed at his blank green walls, a thought occurred to him. Knowing the artistic talents of Mr. Searles and Judy Borger (1979 graduate) he requested them to decorate his walls with a mural of the heart. Since the objects on the walls are only labeled with letters, they serve as visual aids for Mr. Panei without allowing the students to cheat during exams. Mr. Panei has

Yearbook Faces Expanded Sections

New color, more features, more pages!

Miss Toepert the new yearbook advisor, plans to expand the book with color and a bigger activity and feature sections. The price of the book is also new at $15.50. "Quality is better than quantity," according to Miss Toepert. "We're looking for a book that students will be able to appreciate now and 20 years from now."

Color Guard

Now More Colorful

The Colorguard has a new look and a renewed spirit. "Not only do we have new uniforms, claimed Vivian Fisher, "We also have a guy, Doug Carey, who helped add to the look."

This year's color guard captain, Judy Valulick, explained that the guard worked hard to raise money for the much needed new uniforms; and as members, Vicki Romer and Pam Kay remarked, "deserved them!"

"But not only do we have uniforms and a new look, Diane Mills. "We also have a better spirit."

Girls are on the beam

Gymnastics Team is Born at Morris Hills

We would like to congratulate Morris Hills on the birth of a new Gymnastics Team and the work of the proud parent, its new coach, Mrs. Pat Lynch. She's fresh out of college and is ready to put a lot of hard work and hours into the team. She said the team is very young but has a lot of talent.

There are 20 girls on the team, but only 10 compete. A girl may not compete until she and Mrs. Lynch feels she's ready. As first year coach, the main goal that Mrs. Lynch would like to see is just the girls' best efforts. If a student is interested in participating in this sport, she should have some basic skills.

The record is 0-4 but the girls and the coach realize theirs is a young team with much competition from older and stronger teams.

KNIGHT GRIDDERERS GET A TASTE OF VICTORY

After not getting a win in 10 games in a row, second year coach Howard Fyock got his first victory, as Morris Hills defeated Boonton, 21-6. The Knights have a promising future as the leading rusher this season, Mike Rettino, returns in the backfield next year with a host of underclassmen earning their varsity letters. The Knights posted a 2-7 record, sporting a 2-5 ledger in the conference.

Coach Toepert

In 1977, the Girls' Cross Country team had an overall record of one win and eight losses. Now, only two years later, the team, coached by Janet Toepert, boasts the finest record in their short history: a dual meet record of six wins and three losses, a fourth place finish in the Morris County Championships, and a "dream - come - true" second place in the North Jersey Group Three Sectional Race. To highlight the season, the team was rated as one of the top ten squads in the area.

This year, the Boys' Cross Country team had a six and two season. Co-captains Mark Fitzpatrick and Dave Spivak, led the team to a third place finish in the Hills Division. Rounding out the Varsity Squad were Seniors Steve Lockhardt, and Jim Phillipi, Junior Gordon Helck, and Sophomores Neil Fitzpatrick, Chris Curran, and Mike Braverman.

Senior Debbie Coombs racked up the most assists in one season, and junior Linda Sperber scored the most goals. This year, the Girls' Tennis Team "bageled" their opponents with a record of 11 wins and 0 losses to cop the Hills Division championship. Under the guidance of first year coach Gerald Lasso, the girls broke all previous school records. Leading the way with unblemished records were Seniors, Captain Jen "City" Einhorn and Co-Captain Karen "City" Levine. Sophomore, Theresa Fox, also showed that tennis was her racket, as she sported a ledger of 14-0. Jennifer was voted to the first singles all area team while Coach Lasso was selected as Tennis Coach of the Year.

VARSITY BOYS ENJOY A WINNING SEASON

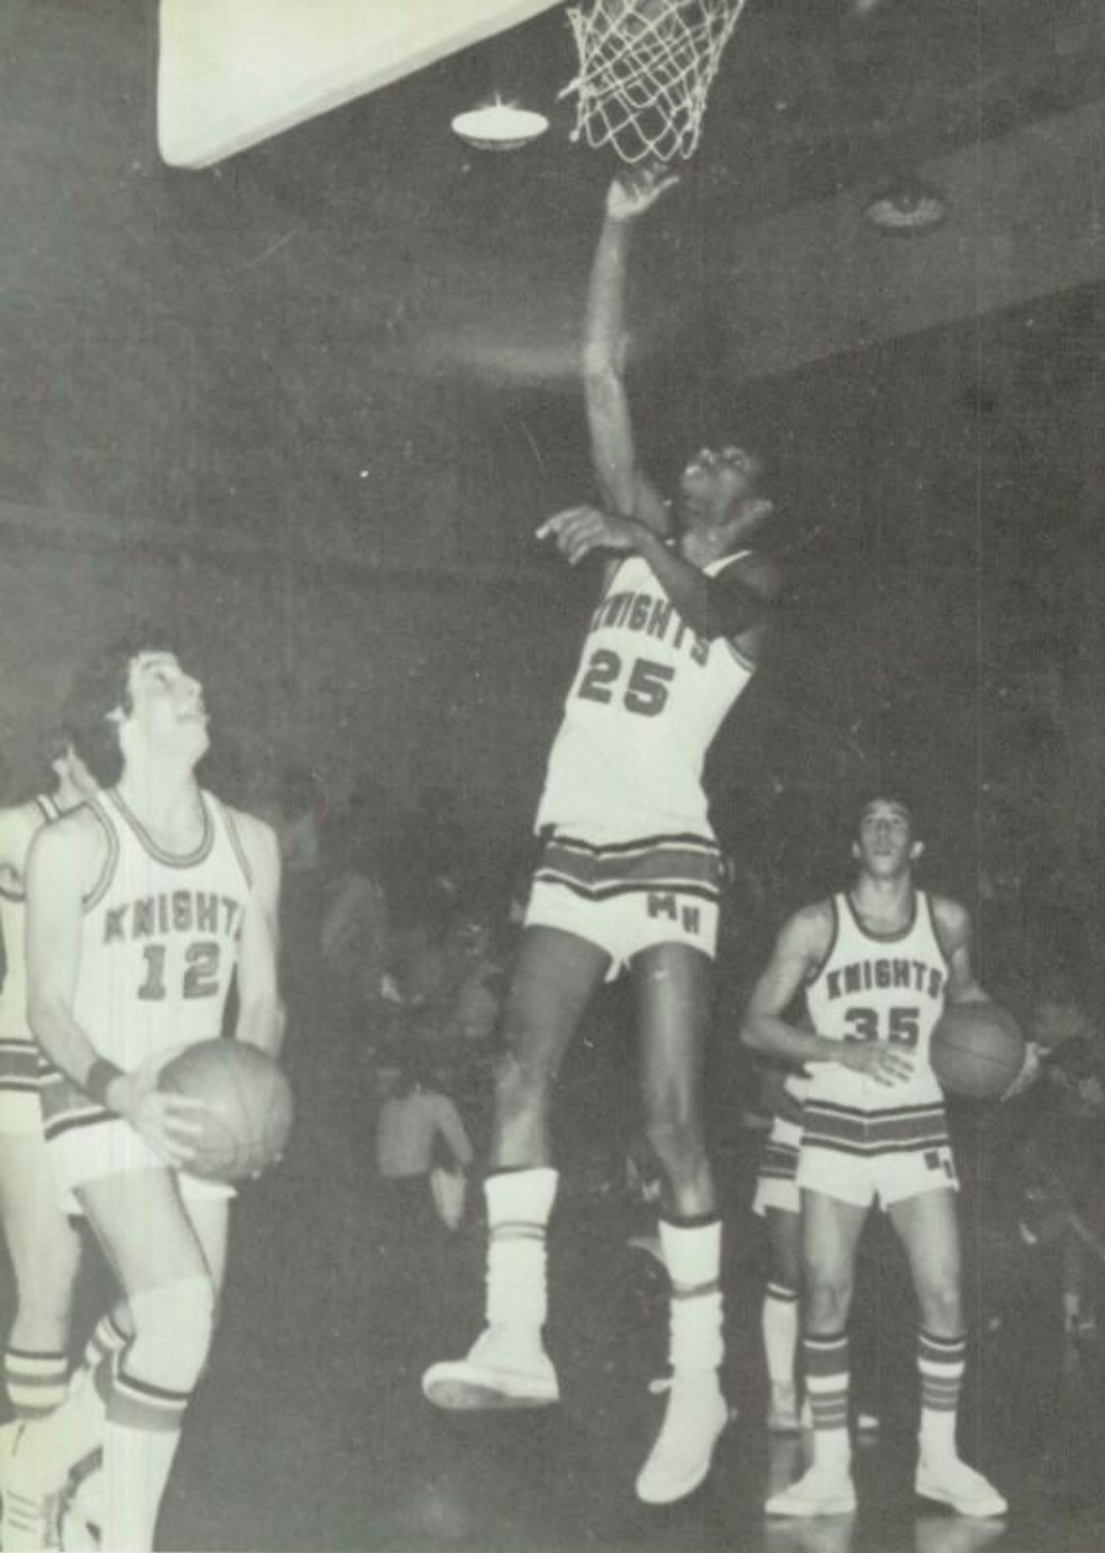

Led by a strong starting lineup, the M.H. Boys' Varsity Basketball Team posted its first winning season since 1976. They finished up 8-5 in the conference and 13-9 overall. Seniors Al Kellman, John Davalos, and Lino Rago helped this team to place third in the conference. WINTER TRACK AND FIELD

Coaches Naclerio and O'Leary have pulled the Indoor Track Team through yet another outstanding season. Our talented girls included seniors Brenda Ziegler and Cathy Valencia. With a fine team effort, the girls conquered the County Championship title; thus being the first Girls' Indoor track team ever, in the history of M.H. to accomplish this feat. In addition to the seniors, other members of the team included the following record holders: Anne Mackinnon, Maura Hennessey, Denise Farley, and Ann Heilmeier. The Boys' team fared well again as they captured third place in the County Relays, County Championships, and in the conference. Senior Craig Mezik, Ron Hooper, Norm Roth, Steve Lockahrt, Jim Phillippi and David Spivak set the pace for the team as they ran over Morris Knolls.

The smile on Jim Wheatley's face shows just how much he enjoys running.

This year a new team was added to our winter schedule — the Girls' Fencing Team. Their record of 6-8 was impressive for a first year squad. Coached by Mrs. Moore, the girls were led by seniors Sue Wasserman, and Andrea Dicker, also by junior, Debbie Wasserman.

Coach Moore was pleased with the results of the first season, especially their showing in the Santelli Winter Tournament, where they won 40 bouts.

Sue Wasserman was the definite standout of the team, posting an amazing record of 66-4. She is considered the #1 female fencer in New Jersey, and placed 12th in the Junior Olympics in Portland.

As for the Boys, they had a very good season finishing with a record of 8-5. The Sabre team dominated the season as they were led by captains Rich Hauer (30-2) and Neil Kagan (37-1), as well as Bennett Katz. Other Seniors on the team were Dave Kratka, Sal Lawler, and Yanai Siegel. They won the Cetrullo Tourney, District Championships, and State Championship matches.

SKATERS HIT THE ICE WITH ENTHUSIASM

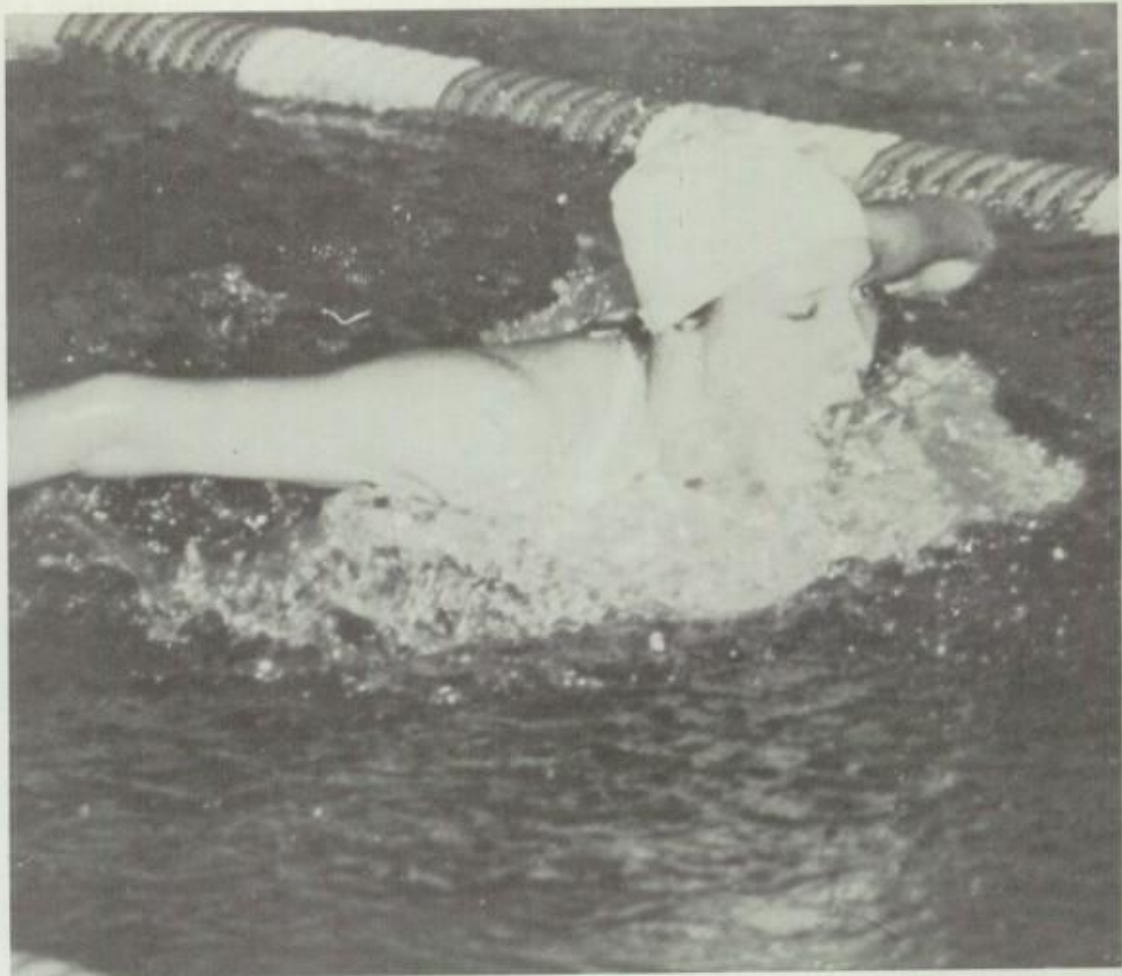

The one word which best describes this year's Morris Hills Hockey Team is rebuilding. After losing 13 seniors last year, the team had to rely on only 6 returning letterman. Leading the way for the Knights in the nets were Mark Di Gennaro and Neil Norman with seniors Carl Ertle, John Ferrone, Jon Ticker, and Bill Vieten skating the ice.

INGREDIENTS FOR A SEASON ... JUST ADD

The toughest kids in winter sports were probably our swimmers, who braved the early hours of the morning to practice. This years Boys' team finished at 0-5, and the Girls at 3-2, while the Coed meets ended with a slate of 2-2-1. The girls placed third in the county, and the boys were fourth. Senior Bob Traino holds the school and county record in the 200 Freestyle. Other Seniors on the team were Micki Verkuillen, and Cathy Raynis.
